Irvine Residents with Disabilities Advisory Board

Established in 1990 by the Irvine City Council to ensure that residents with disabilities have equal access to community life in Irvine.

IRDAB meets the first Tuesday of every month at 6pm at the Civic Center, to discuss issues of concern to residents with disabilities and their families. Meetings are open to the public. IRDAB also offers a Speakers' Bureau with the goal of educating the public about issues affecting and challenging individuals with disabilities. For more information call (949) 724-6732 or visit www.IrvineDisabilityServices.org.

Get Involved!

The City of Irvine is currently accepting applications to fill vacancies on the Irvine Residents with Disabilities Advisory Board (IRDAB).

For more information on how to apply to be an IRDAB member, visit www.IrvineDisabilityServices.org or call Irvine Disability Services at (949) 724-6633.

Information and Referral

- Disability Services' "Know No Limits" newsletter provides updates on resources, programs and recent legislation. To be placed on the mailing list, please call (949) 724-6637.
- For disability related questions or to report access concerns, please call (949) 724-6732.

Inclusion Program

The City of Irvine provides temporary, reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities. To insure appropriate and equitable program opportunities in Community Services' programs to people with disabilities, please allow at least two weeks for an accommodation request. Call (949) 724-6732 for additional information.
