Standards of Conduct

106.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE
This policy establishes standards of conduct that are consistent with the values and mission of the Irvine Police Department and are expected of all department members. The standards contained in this policy are not intended to be an exhaustive list of requirements and prohibitions, but they do identify many of the important matters concerning conduct. In addition to the provisions of this policy, members are subject to all other provisions contained in this manual, as well as any additional guidance on conduct that may be disseminated by this department or a member’s supervisor.

106.2 POLICY
The continued employment or appointment of every member of the Irvine Police Department shall be based on conduct that reasonably conforms to the guidelines set forth herein. Failure to meet the guidelines set forth in this policy, whether on- or off-duty, may be cause for disciplinary action.

106.3 DIRECTIVES AND ORDERS
Members shall comply with lawful directives and orders from any department supervisor or person in a position of authority, absent a reasonable and bona fide justification.

106.3.1 UNLAWFUL OR CONFLICTING ORDERS
Supervisors shall not knowingly issue orders or directives that, if carried out, would result in a violation of any law or department policy. Supervisors should not issue orders that conflict with any previous order without making reasonable clarification that the new order is intended to countermand the earlier order.

No member is required to obey any order that appears to be in direct conflict with any federal law, state law or local ordinance. Following a known unlawful order is not a defense and does not relieve the member from criminal or civil prosecution or administrative discipline. If the legality of an order is in doubt, the affected member shall ask the issuing supervisor to clarify the order or shall confer with a higher authority. The responsibility for refusal to obey rests with the member, who shall subsequently be required to justify the refusal.

Unless it would jeopardize the safety of any individual, members who are presented with a lawful order that is in conflict with a previous lawful order, department policy or other directive shall respectfully inform the issuing supervisor of the conflict. The issuing supervisor is responsible for either resolving the conflict or clarifying that the lawful order is intended to countermand the previous lawful order or directive, in which case the member is obliged to comply. Members who are compelled to follow a conflicting lawful order after having given the issuing supervisor the opportunity to correct the conflict, will not be held accountable for disobedience of the lawful order or directive that was initially issued.
The person countermanding the original order shall notify, in writing, the person issuing the original order, indicating the action taken and the reason.

106.3.2 SUPERVISOR RESPONSIBILITIES
Supervisors and managers are required to follow all policies and procedures and may be subject to discipline for:

(a) Failure to be reasonably aware of the performance of their subordinates or to provide appropriate guidance and control.

(b) Failure to promptly and fully report any known misconduct of a member to his/her immediate supervisor or to document such misconduct appropriately or as required by policy.

(c) Directing a subordinate to violate a policy or directive, acquiesce to such a violation, or are indifferent to any such violation by a subordinate.

(d) The unequal or disparate exercise of authority on the part of a supervisor toward any member for malicious or other improper purpose.

106.4 GENERAL STANDARDS
Members shall conduct themselves, whether on- or off-duty, in accordance with the United States and California constitutions and all applicable laws, ordinances, and rules enacted or established pursuant to legal authority.

Members shall familiarize themselves with policies and procedures and are responsible for compliance with each. Members should seek clarification and guidance from supervisors in the event of any perceived ambiguity or uncertainty.

Discipline may be initiated for any good cause. It is not mandatory that a specific policy or rule violation be cited to sustain discipline. This policy is not intended to cover every possible type of misconduct.

106.5 CAUSES FOR DISCIPLINE
The following are illustrative of causes for disciplinary action. This list is not intended to cover every possible type of misconduct and does not preclude the recommendation of disciplinary action for violation of other rules, standards, ethics and specific action or inaction that is detrimental to efficient department service:

106.7 ADMINISTERING A WRITTEN REPRIMAND / LETTER OF REPRIMAND

A supervisor administering a written reprimand must follow the preliminary steps below:
Standards of Conduct

a. Once the misconduct has been observed, investigated if necessary, documented and a decision has been made to issue a written reprimand, the supervisor must obtain review of the disciplinary action by his/her respective Division Commander.

b. Once Commander review is completed, the written reprimand will be provided to the concerned employee by the issuing supervisor.

c. The affected employee will be asked to sign the reprimand. If the employee refuses to sign the reprimand, the supervisor will note the refusal on the document.

d. The supervisor will give a copy of the signed reprimand to the concerned employee. An additional copy will be placed and retained in the employee's working file until his/her next review period.

e. The original written reprimand shall be placed in the employee's personnel file where it will be retained for one year from the date of issuance. The reprimand will then be automatically purged from the personnel file and placed in the officer's Internal Affairs file where it will be retained for a period of seven years.

f. Pursuant to Government Code section 3304(b), personnel may appeal their written reprimand. Under the Memorandum of Understanding between the Irvine Police Officers Association and the City of Irvine, personnel wishing to appeal their written reprimand must notify the Chief of Police in writing via email within ten (10) calendar days of being notified of the written reprimand. The written notice of appeal must specify the action being appealed and the grounds for the appeal. Personnel failing to timely serve written notification of appeal will waive his/her right to appeal.

g. Pursuant to Government Code section 3305, this written reprimand is an adverse comment. Therefore, under Government Code section 3306, personnel have the right to submit a written response to it within 30 days. The written response will be kept in the employee's personnel file with the written reprimand.
